

Verlet-insect constraints

— Invisible
— Visible

The lines in the picture tend to keep their lengths. Blue lines are visible and yellow ones are invisible. The insect may fold when hit by balls or collide with ground and wall. Then it tends to return to original shape.